

THE Big 3

EPISODE: 261

TITLE: WWJD During This Pandemic?

What would Jesus do during this pandemic? What would he focus on, and how would he prioritize his time with his disciples and those that did not yet believe in him?

Here are three key things to believe and consider about living like Jesus during a crisis:

1. As it is in all of life, right now we get to choose our response, choose how we'll spend our time, and with whom. What will people see in your life during this time of crisis? Let it be a person, a family, the church that was present, inclusive, careful, generous, and full of love and hope. This is legacy building time for all of us. To God be the glory!
2. There may never be another opportunity like this in our lifetime to show others God's sacrificial and unconditional love. You already have that perfect, unending love; regardless of your own fears or self-focused patterns that may exist in your life (we all have them), God loves you completely. You have nothing to prove or earn! He sent his own Son, Jesus, on a mission to rescue you and show you that great love. You now get to intentionally share that love and hope with many others today who feel their need like never before. How exciting are the times we're living in?!
3. Pick one or two ideas from the UP, IN, and OUT focus areas we talked about and prayerfully, as a family, church or community group, start diving into these right away. Don't wait. People are lonely, afraid, and unsure of what will happen next. Together as God's children and as we radically include others, we will get through this and see God glorify himself like never before.

I'd love to talk with you about all of this personally if you want help in these areas...
