

THE Big 3

EPISODE: 221

TITLE: Hugh Halter: An Apostle's Journey

God is still at work expanding His kingdom... and He might just be asking you to join Him in some unexpected ways!

Here are three things to believe and consider about how God calls His children:

1. Sometimes God leads us to places, and in ways that may surprise us. Hugh and his wife Cheryl were living in Denver on a ranch that they had just finished remodeling for the ministry they believed God called them to. Then God spoke again! Have you ever wondered if you have heard God's voice and calling clearly? Could God be using one season of life, and set of circumstances, to prepare you and your family for what he has next for you?
2. God always provides for the things he calls us to do. Often we don't follow God's leading or call because we feel like we need to see every step clearly before starting out. And we think we need to understand and see all of the ways he plans to provide for us before we'll take that first trusting step of obedience. Our good and great Father knows the future he has for us and has proven throughout history (and our lives) that he is fully able to provide for everything he calls us to do. You can trust him!
3. What areas of your life and ministry may God be trying to get your attention and make some changes? All the gospel influence and expansion that Hugh and his family are experiencing now in Alton, IL would not have happened if they had stayed comfortably on their ranch in Colorado. God would still love them the same, but what a missed opportunity it may have been! What would you do tomorrow if time, money and other people's opinions of you were not an issue? A great adventure may be waiting for you if you "just say yes."
