

EPISODE: 442

TITLE: How to Revive Your Missional Community

Getting to a vibrant life in community is a journey. A lifestyle is the goal—the destination. Begin where you are at, or begin again. This is the life you were created by God to live!

Here are three key things to believe and consider:

1. Know that this life in community is a journey and the lifestyle is the goal, the destination. Begin where you are at, or begin again. This is the life you were created by God to live. A week-to-week experience of your faith is not what Jesus came to give you.
2. Believe that God wants you to have this type of intentional lifestyle. Jesus lived the best possible life any human ever lived and he taught his disciples to live this way and invites us to this same life.
3. Unless you are a pretty rare Christian (probably less than 1%), you do not have the tools and skills to naturally make disciples and help people come to the Lord and experience true Christian community in everyday life. That's not your fault! But it doesn't have to stay that way. Find and engage in a true, integrated, lifestyle apprenticeship with those that have gone before you.
