TITLE: Your Next Steps In Gospel Fluency

Gospel Fluency is learning how the Gospel speaks to every area of life in a way that is delivered in normal conversation and received as good news by others... starting with ourselves.

Here are the 3 key things to believe and consider about how the Gospel changes you...

1. The gospel is good news for every area of your life—not just your afterlife. It transforms every corner of your existence. So often people think Christianity is about avoiding hell and going to heaven. And as we wait, it's a lot of sin management and behavior modification. No. It's about embracing a new way of life that starts right now, a life filled with hope, love, and purpose.
2. God now sees you as his cherished and dearly loved son or daughter. You don't have to jump through hoops or put on a facade to earn His love. Nope, it's a free gift given because of what Jesus has already accomplished for you. Imagine waking up every day knowing that you are unconditionally loved, just as you are! Believe what God says is true about you and him now.
3. When you become fluent in the gospel, it's like speaking the language of freedom and joy. You'll find yourself unburdened by all the unnecessary baggage that life can throw your way. You won't have to fear rejection when sharing your faith with others because your message will be so genuine and full of hope that it will resonate deeply with them. It's like having the key to unlock a world of true liberation, both for yourself and those around you. Sharing the gospel becomes a natural and beautiful thing because it truly is good news!
