

EPISODE: 476

TITLE: Why Jesus Wants Us to Stop Going to Church

There was this “all-in nature” to life and the Kingdom for Jesus and his crew. Living life was less complicated and less programmed than what we’ve come to experience as Christians. Jesus taught people and did life over meals, and along the way, people opened up to a new way of living and being.

1. Jesus didn’t die on the cross so that we might start going to church once in a while on Sundays. He came to save us and give us TRULY abundant lives this side of heaven!
2. Jesus’ command was not “invite people to your church” or plant great churches... it was to make disciples! Is your life currently radically reoriented around disciple-making?
3. If you are a Christian you ARE the Church. That’s an identity thing. It’s true of you and your mission is to be and make disciples. You are part of a family of missionary servants.

The pressure is off my friends. You have been given a new identity and have the love of a perfect Father. Not to mention, you are co-heirs with Jesus of ALL things!

Live generously...Go and BE the Church.
