TITLE: Feeling Awkward: Conquering the Fear of Rejection

Regardless of your methods of evangelism or discipleship, one universal reason that many (most) people don't seem to share their faith very often, or in meaningful ways is fear of rejection. Here's how to beat that!

1. Believe that you are perfectly loved by God regardless of how often or well you talk about him to others. You cannot earn his love—you already have it because of Christ. (That's awesome!)
2. Take a longer view of evangelism. Jesus' command to his disciples (us Christians) was not to go out there and get everyone saved. That's his job. We were called to invite people to walk in His ways...to make disciples. That's our goal. And that takes time.
3. Grow in Gospel Fluency. The Good News should sound like, and be, good news to us and everyone who hears it. Can you speak and apply the gospel in any situation? Or is your understanding of the gospel a little small and limited primarily to the afterlife?

👉 You can begin today to develop a much bigger gospel in all of life. Check out this free video, it will get you rolling. On that same page, you can find our master class and get started today.
