TITLE: 6 Gospel Keys to Praying Like Jesus

Prayer is all about experiencing the gospel in relationship with our Father. Jesus knew this and wanted his disciples (us) to experience the closeness and trust that he does with our Father.

Here are three things to believe and consider about praying the gospel over all of life:

1. Prayer was always meant to be a conversation with our Father, our Daddy. If your prayers are cold, formal, self-focused or rare, then seeing prayer as a time we get to talk with Dad and realign our priorities and trust with his will draw you to the Source of all life and grace and love. What have you been waiting to tell or ask Dad about?
2. Seeking the Kingdom, and the will of our Father here on Earth removes the weight of trying to build our own kingdoms. So much of what stresses us out in life (maybe everything that does) comes from us trying to build our own kingdoms and see our will be done...not only for ourselves, but we want everyone else to come in line with our will too! Let go and let Dad. Ask him what his will for your life, conversations, hopes and dreams for today are. Then ask him to guide you into it.
3. Praying through Jesus' pattern of prayer covers every area of life. Every fear, every need, every temptation and every attack. Take a few minutes now to pray through the 6 movements of Jesus' prayer pattern. At each step, personalize what you are facing, needing, or hoping for in that "category" of the prayer. Our heavenly Dad wants to hear it all, and waits to see you walk in trust and freedom!
