

EPIISODE: 391

TITLE: Family Discipleship and Mission Made Simple (Part 1)

Discipleship is a lifestyle—not a series of classes and then you’re finished. The amazing life that Jesus came to give us with others is waiting!

Here are three key things to believe and consider when beginning to move your family, group or church toward family discipleship and everyday mission...

- 1. Your family is an amazing place to begin when starting a missional community. Live as a family worth joining and imitating. Begin at the beginning in your own lives. Trying to organize others into a series of activities, events or rhythms that you and those closest to you are not already living will produce unnecessary stress and set you up for failure.
- 2. God loves you just where you’re at, but our Father did not send his son Jesus just to get us into heaven; he came that we might have a full life, an adventure with him of being his disciple and making more disciples... Starting first with our own kids, our own church and then moving outwards toward others.
- 3. Get the training and encouragement you need to get started and stay on mission! It is far too easy to hear a talk like this and give mental assent to things... nodding in agreement with good intentions, but never really get started with new, meaningful practices.

Get the 7 Moves to Missional Course that Caesar talked about at 80% off while available!

Go to: everydaydisciple.com/7moves

Also: If you are interested in being coached by Caesar and his wife Tina in a lifestyle of discipleship and mission, new cohorts are starting soon... Start experiencing greater spiritual freedom and relational peace today!

Check out: everydaydisciple.com/coaching

Thanks for listening... we’ll see you in the next episode!

~Caesar