TITLE: Gospel Motivation: The Key to Changing Our Desires Pt.1

How do we stay motivated and motivate others to desire a lifestyle of discipleship and mission beyond a weekly meeting?

Here are 3 key things to believe and consider about how the Gospel motivates us...

1. What you love will determine your true motivations in life. What we believe in our heads (knowledge and past learnings) informs what we believe in our hearts. And so does our overall understanding of the gospel and our true identity... We are a family of missionary servants, sent as disciples who make disciples. Gospel motivation starts with believing this is true of you in Christ.
2. What might you be missing because of a lack of Gospel Motivation? Jesus said, "Truly I tell you, whoever believes in me will do the works I have been doing, and they will do even greater things than these." (John 14:12) What are the "greater things" God is wanting to do in your heart, your life and family, your community and church? You are perfectly loved by the Father and have nothing to fear. Ask God to start to change the motivations of your life. You can trust him.
3. What do you love the most...your life, career, leisure, family, location...? All these good things may be keeping you from the life and mission God has called you, too. Don't wait for "someday" or "when we're finished with this..." to let the gospel change your affection, motivation, and sometimes location. Living God's life and plan with God's power (the Holy Spirit) will never lack, and will be a thrill ride!

You're invited to a powerful, free training I'm hosting... The Gospel in Everyday Life.

Reserve your spot now. "I know of no other training that can change your life as much in one hour!"

If you're interested in learning how our coaching can help you grow in gospel fluency and make discipleship a lifestyle, let's talk. I'd love to set up a quick Zoom call and get to know you and tell you about it.
